

Anderson's

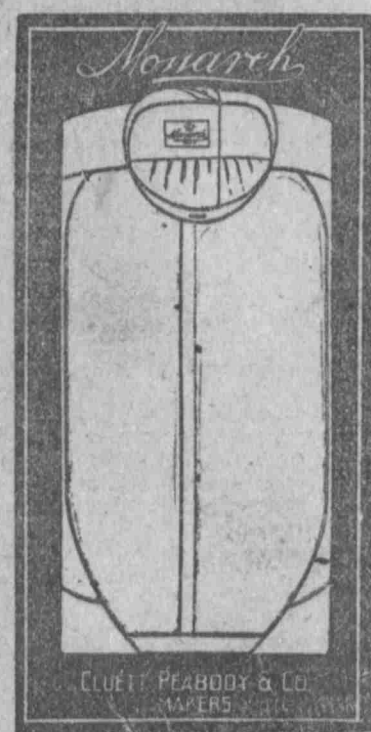

"WEAR-EASY" SHOES.

A shoe made especially for an every day work shoe on the farm. A shoe that will wear as easy as an old slipper. A shoe that you don't have to "break in" before you can wear it with any comfort. A shoe that will be perfectly comfortable on the tenderest feet. A shoe that hasn't a peg or a tack, or a thread of any kind to touch the bottom of your foot.

GOVERNORS NAMED.

Kern in Indiana, Dockery in Missouri and Holt in W. Va.

Democrats Getting Together Everywhere On Harmony Platforms.

Indianapolis, June 6.—John W. Kern, of this city, was nominated to-day at noon by the Democratic State convention for governor by acclamation. The result was reached on account of a letter from B. F. Shively, stating that he would not accept the nomination. As soon as the announcement was made there was a stampede for Kern. The resolutions endorse Bryan and the Chicago platform and condemn Gov. Mount for not surrendering Taylor and Finley.

Dockery For Governor.

Kansas City, Mo., June 6.—The Democratic State Convention at noon to-day nominated Congressman Dockery for governor. The platform warmly endorses Bryan and the Chicago platform.

Silver Not Mentioned.

Parkersburg, W. Va., June 6.—The Democratic State convention met at noon to-day. The platform endorses Bryan for the presidency but does not mention silver. Holt will be nominated for governor.

BECKHAM

Expected That He Will Soon Make His Announcement.

Frankfort, Ky., June 6.—While Gov. Beckham has made no formal announcement of his candidacy for Governor it is the understanding among his friends that he will issue a statement to the Democracy of the State at the proper time. His official duties will prevent him from making an extended campaign, but it is understood he will make speeches at several points in the State prior to the convention.

The Governor's managers are pleased with the reports they are receiving from many parts of the State. These show him to be either leading or contending candidate in nearly every county.

Gov. Beckham is in Lexington to-day attending a meeting of the Commissioners of the State A. and M. College. He will return to-night.

CRACKED THE SHELL.

Rock Proved Harder Than Alex's Skull.

Chap Reed, a negro boy 12 years old, crushed in the skull of Alex Corliss, another negro 16 years old, by a blow on his head with a rock, at Esq. Coleman's place, near Herndon, Wednesday morning. The smaller boy slipped up behind the other and hit him with the stone, knocking him senseless. Dr. Stone was sent for and found Corliss' skull badly fractured and his recovery is a matter of great doubt. It is not known whether or not they had had a previous difficulty.

JAS. A. MCKENZIE, Jr.

Valedictorian in a Large Center College Class.

The following graduated from the Centre College law department this year: Samuel K. Baird, Waterford; Charles D. Burbank, Henderson; George D. Chapman, Hawthorne, Fla.; William V. Cohn, Fort Smith, Ark.; Edward Crossland, Mayfield; James A. McKenzie, Jr., Oak Grove; Austin F. Moss, Hodgenville; Cecil Reed, Benton; John M. Robinson, Barbourville; John C. Voris, Burgin; Geo. W. Walsh, Danville; Charles C. York, Pikeville. The valedictorian of the class is James Andrew McKenzie, of Oak Grove, Ky. Former Gov. Knott delivered the farewell address to the school at the closing session.

TO-MORROW.

The County Mass Conventions Will Be Held.

Delegates Will Be Appointed to The Bryan Convention June 14.

The Democrats of Christian county are called upon to meet in mass convention at 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon, at the Court House, to select sixteen delegates to the Bryan convention at Louisville next Thursday. Of course, no other name than Bryan's will be presented at Kansas City and as the Louisville convention will only appoint delegates to a convention the nominee of which is already known, it is not receiving the attention the regular State convention will a month later. The county convention will probably be short and free from excitement. Nothing is to be done except to appoint 16 delegates and 16 alternates to the Louisville convention.

THREE CONVICTIONS

In Federal Court At Owensboro, and Verdicts in Two Large Damage Cases.

Owensboro, Ky., June 5.—A. A. and A. B. Nash, of Ohio county, were given two years each in the Nashville penitentiary by Judge Evans for counterfeiting. Sam Silva was given one year for violating pension laws. George Walk, the Owensboro brewer, was not indicted, but held over to the next grand jury in the sum of $500.

In the action of Buckner & Co., of Hopkinsville, against the National Insurance Company of Connecticut, for damages because of a libelous letter written by an officer of the insurance company about Buckner & Co., the jury gave the plaintiffs judgment for $1,500.

In the action of the W. H. and G. Maxwell Company against John Lillard to recover money advanced by the plaintiffs to the defendant in excess of the value of the tobacco shipped by the defendant to the plaintiffs, the jury rendered a verdict in favor of the plaintiffs for $7,560.35.

SALTER-STEWARD

Former Hopkinsville Boy And Alabama Lady Larry.

News was received in the city yesterday of the marriage of Mr. Hiram P. Salter, formerly of this place, and Miss Bessie Steward, of Florence, Ala. The happy event took place at the home of the bride's parents Wednesday evening. Mr. Salter is an exceedingly popular young gentleman and holds a responsible position with the L. & N. railroad company, with headquarters at Middlesboro, Ky.

His bride is said to be a very pretty and highly accomplished lady.

Miss Carrie Salter, of Henderson, sister of the groom, attended the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Salter, immediately after the ceremony, left for Middlesboro.

Gapped The Hatchet.

Two Henderson negroes, Frank Keys and Arch Nunn, fought with hatchets. Keys cut Nunn in the head, making a bad wound. He is still alive but the hatchet is gapped.

Gave Birth To Triplets.

The wife of Mr. John Cates, of near Nebo, gave birth to triplets Saturday morning. All were females. The children died. The mother is said to be doing well.—Gleaner.
